

MERCHANTS PLAN TO GIVE $1000 FOR PROMOTION

Joint Meeting for April 29 Is Called for Makai Pavilion of Young Hotel

Had there been a full attendance at the meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Association yesterday afternoon, there probably would have been an unanimous agreement to appropriate $1000 from the funds of the organization for use by the Promotion Committee.

There having been a bare quorum present, it was unanimously voted to bring the matter before the members of the association, by post card and the subject further discussed, at a meeting to be held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 22. Ed Towse, who is chairman of the Promotion Committee, spoke of the present need of funds by that organization, saying that if the merchants made the appropriation, it would be carrying out a custom of the past. Each of the members of the association is to be informed by postal card of the proposed appropriation, and asked to attend the meeting of the directors and offer any suggestions he may have.

It was announced that a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association has been called for April 29 in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel, at which time steps will be taken toward the consolidation of those bodies. The directors of the Merchants' Association heartily endorsed the county fair proposition which soon is to be held at Schofield Barracks.

HERMAN LEWIS MAKES SECOND PRISON ESCAPE

closely resembling Lewis was seen at daylight, by a Hawaiian, approaching Waipahu, the man apparently following a trail somewhat removed from the government road and the railway line.

Soldiers and all detectives that could be spared from Honolulu were immediately posted at all vantage points along the line of the Oahu railway, while a number of men are now beating about the lantana groves and cane fields between this city and Wahiawa district.

Deputy Sheriff Fernandez of Ewa was ordered by Sheriff Jarrett to place all his available men at the disposal of the military authorities in effecting the recapture of Lewis.

The man is awaiting trial upon a charge of robbing Charles Silva, Li-ber-ti Nakai and Ho Lim, three licensed chauffeurs, on the night of March 12, the holdup taking place at a secluded spot on the road leading to Maunaloa.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—D. L. CONKLING: I have given my office a new coat of paint.

MAYOR J. J. FERN: It is often worse to be understood than misunderstood.

—L. V. STEVENSON: The Maui News will have to get itself out this week. It's a little hard on a one-man paper to call its editor away for a week as a witness in a law suit, but these things can't be helped.

—LIEUT. A. L. BUMP: The equipment of Company D included 12 automobiles, which were parked outside the armory on the night of inspection of that company. I did not inspect these, but presume they complied in every way with the regulations.

—LIEUT. J. P. EDGERLY: I understand that no snakes have been discovered on Hawaii during my absence on the mainland. Apparently the one I killed on the Volcano road last year was the last one of its tribe on the Big Island.

—PAUL SUPER: I would like to see every member of the local Young Men's Christian Association attend the annual meeting which is to be held next month. It is going to be interesting throughout—interesting talks, interesting reports, and an interesting dinner.

—E. E. PAXTON: I regret exceedingly leaving Honolulu. However, I think my health will be better on the coast. But I am still retaining my interests in the islands and may possibly return some time. I shall also remain in close touch with what is going on here.

—COL. J. W. JONES: The spirit which is being shown by Company L of the national guard is something to be proud of. I would like to see the same spirit instilled into the other companies. The performance given at the armory last night has set a new standard in the way of local entertainment. Now, the other companies should get busy.

—HENRY MCRAE: Our first Hawaiian films have reached New York and have passed the board of censors, and I have received a number of cables most highly congratulating us on our success. As a field combining in greatest degree wonderfully interesting folklore with magnificent scenery, I know of no place in the world that can equal it, and I know this globe of ours pretty well.

RALLY FOR TEMPERANCE.

An interesting program is now being arranged for the union temperance service to be held in Central Union church next Sunday evening under the auspices of the local branch of the Anti-Saloon League. The committee in charge of the arrangements is making extensive preparations for the rally in the cause of temperance, to which the public is cordially invited. Central Union, the Methodist and the Christian churches have united to make the gathering one of the largest of its kind ever held in Honolulu.

It's easy to be happy; all you have to do is be foolish.

O.R.&L. COMPANY WELCOMES PROBE SAYS PRESIDENT

By agreement with the pineapple men, headed by J. D. Dole, president of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company, the freight rate was fixed for the first year at $5 per ton, $4 for the second year, $3 for the third year, and $2.50 per ton thereafter for 17 years. This is the basis which still obtains.

Mr. Dillingham states that the rapid success of the pineapple business and the unforeseen increase in freight earnings resulting, caused the railroad to lower its rates to $2.50 per ton much sooner than would have been necessary under its contract.

It has been known for some time that at least a part of the pineapple growers at Wahiawa have been complaining that regardless of the contract, which still has 12 years to run, the rates should be lowered on account of the changed conditions which now prevail and which render the agreement no longer equitable. They claim that not only has the pineapple business exceeded in volume anything that was ever foreseen when the contract was made, but the establishing of the big army post at Lihue has since brought business enough to justify the branch without considering pineapples at all. Therefore, they claim, the interstate commerce commission should take a hand and equalize things. Whether or not this could be done in face of an apparently valid contract, is a question which cannot be lightly answered.

Mr. Dillingham holds that the railroad took all, and very heavy risks in building the branch in the first place, on account of the then uncertainty of the pineapple business, and lack of anything else to justify the outlay. The railroad also has been the means of enabling these pineapple men to make a great deal of money, and should be entitled to the profit which its promoters have won by their enterprise.

MOANA HOTEL TO HOLD A DANCE TONIGHT

Tourists, local Army and Navy people and Honolulu society are invited to a dance to be given at the Moana Hotel tonight by the management. A Hawaiian quintet will play during the dinner hour. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock—advertisement.

Morning on 'CHANGE

The dropping back of the sugar quotation yesterday to 2.95 from 2.98 seems to have been generally unexpected by local sugar men, who had come to believe that the period of extremely low prices was about ended. Even those many believe that the slump is merely a flurry, and that the general level of the market from now on will be upward.

Cooke of Alexander & Baid was inclined to take this view of the situation this morning. "As far as I can see," he said, "conditions warrant the belief that prices should be better from now on. It may be that the last quotation is but a fluctuation that does not signify anything."

All sugar stocks continue weak on the local exchange, this time, if anything, being a little more pronounced than yesterday. Neither during the session nor between boards was there any movement of sugar shares, the only trading today being in miscellaneous industrials. Brewery dropped a point and a half since last sale, 66 shares selling for 17 flat. The trend of this stock has been downward for the past few weeks. At close 16 was bid and 17 asked. Five shares of Gas Common sold between boards at the established price of 107½. The chief activity reported was in Telephone shares, 203 shares of which brought 15 flat between boards. The price continues firm. Pineapples show stronger, selling today for 32.

REV. R. ELMER SMITH HAS HEARD NOTHING OF MR. FRY'S PLANS

Rev. R. Elmer Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, informed the Star-Bulletin this morning that he has received no official communication from Bishop Hughes of San Francisco concerning the report that Rev. William Henry Fry, pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist church of Portland, Ore., has been appointed superintendent of the Methodist missions of Hawaii.

"I have also received no official information that I have been appointed to the Sunnyside Methodist Church at Portland," said Mr. Smith. "Until an official confirmation reaches me, I have nothing to say. I simply consented to exchange with Mr. Fry if it could be so arranged. Whether it has been arranged will not definitely be known until it is officially confirmed by the bishop in charge."

A nice point has been raised at bar of the action brought by Schwabacher Brothers against the Goetz Grocery Company of this city. Attorneys for the latter firm filed a motion to dismiss the action today, one of the grounds for the motion being that Schwabacher Brothers is a foreign corporation and is not licensed to do business here, hence without standing in a territorial court.

STANFORD PAIR, TIRED OF STUDY, WED SECRETLY

[By Latest Mail]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY—Weariness of the arduous duties imposed by the Stanford professors which hindered the progress of Dan Cupid, Miss Marie Gordon Tobin, a Stanford sophomore of St. Louis and Edwin William Carlin of Marysville, a junior in the university, eloped to San Jose and were married last at the Santa Clara Mission.

When their marriage became known on the campus, the couple went to the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco. Carlin will take his bride to Marysville, where he will be associated with his father, William H. Carlin, an attorney of Marysville.

Miss Tobin and Carlin have been constantly together during the present semester, and rumors of an engagement have been about the campus. Carlin is but 20 years old, and it is not known whether his parents gave their consent or not.

Miss Tobin is the daughter of John D. Tobin, a wealthy retired capitalist and one of the directors of the St. Louis Printing Company. She majored in history in the university and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Carlin transferred to Stanford from the University of California last September. He was studying law here. Carlin belonged to Kappa Sigma fraternity, but none of his Greek letter brothers knew of the wedding until the day after the ceremony was performed.

NATIONAL GUARD NEWS

Six enlistments last night brought the total strength of Co. H, 1st Infantry, N. G. H., up to 56. There have been several discharges of men who have left the territory, or who have a valid reason for not performing their military duties, so that the 96 now enrolled are all active members of the company, and in line for the 1915 trip to San Francisco. A full strength company of infantry is 108 enlisted, and three officers, although in Hawaii a war strength of 150 is authorized. However, it is probable that when the 108 mark is reached in H company, a waiting list will be formed, and the outfit kept at that strength of active members.

The Chinese-American company has decided to give a benefit dance in the armory, probably the first Saturday in June, the proceeds to swell the company fund so that the company rooms can be comfortably furnished. The national guard moved into a half-finished building a few months ago, and it is up to the companies to shift for themselves.

The committee that will have charge of Company H dance, and that is already laying plans to make it a record-making affair in militia entertainments, is composed of 2d Lieutenant J. C. Lo, 1st Sergeant C. K. Amona, Sergeant Ho Tong, Corporal Harry Kong and Private L. Y. Sang.

Next Monday night there is to be a company examination for the appointment of one sergeant and three corporals. The five corporals will take the examination for sergeant, while a number of privates who have been working for advancement, will take another examination, the three highest men getting the vacancies, and the fourth and fifth men being appointed lance corporals. This examination will be both written and practical, the written questions counting 75 per cent, while the actual drilling of a squad or platoon will count 25 per cent. Lieutenant A. L. Bump, inspector-instructor, will mark the papers, and judge the efficiency of the men in actual drilling.

At present there are only two officers on duty with Company H, Captain Redington and 2d Lieutenant Lo. The latter is in line for promotion, which will leave a vacancy that will be filled from the company. Although it is not the policy of the guard at present to confine promotions to companies, an exception has been made in the case of Company H, as Chinese-Americans now comprise one-eighth of the National Guard of Hawaii, and it is justly felt that they should have more representation in the commissioned personnel of the regiment.

An examination for those men who wish to try for a commission, with its increased responsibilities and expenses, will be held in the company in a few months. The men passing with the highest percentage will be recommended for appointment to the grade of 2d Lieutenant. He will then be ordered before a board of national guard officers for examination, and if successful, will get his commission.

Within a short time the armory will be equipped with enough gymnasium apparatus and facilities for indoor sport, to provide amusement and exercise for the men, and make good the promises that were held out at the time for the recruiting campaign. Lieut. A. L. Bump inspector-instructor, has prepared a report on this matter, which will shortly be transmitted to the armory board, suggesting that certain supplies be purchased at once, and it is understood that this will be done. The guardsmen can be assured of a handball court, indoor baseball diamond, basketball apparatus, punching bags, volley ball and other gym supplies. No attempt will be made at the present time, however, to lay in any of the expensive appliances that go with a fully-equipped gymnasium.

A board of officers has been appointed by recent special orders of the adjutant-general, to devise ways and means, and for giving and promoting the giving of shows, exhibitions, entertainments, to raise funds for the current expenses of the national guard.

The detail of the board is as follows: Colonel Arthur Coyne, Major M. M. Johnson, Captains J. A. Thompson, H. P. O'Sullivan, Walter V. Kolb, Laurence Redington, 2nd Lieut. A. J. Lowrey.

There have been several appointments to the grade of second lieutenant within the last week, the officers named to appear before an examining board in the near future. Sergeants A. J. Lowrey and Gustav Schaefer, of D company, and Edward K. Chung, of E company, being raised to commissioned rank. Lieutenants Lowrey and Chung have been assigned to the 1st Infantry, and it is understood that the former will go to Company B, and the latter remain with E. Lieutenant Schaefer is placed on the unassigned list for the present.

Two Japanese stowaways who had been manacled and locked in a cabin on the British steamer Strathendrick during the stay of the vessel at Honolulu for bunker coal, only to effect their escape, are still at large, despite the efforts of officials connected with the federal immigration department to recapture them. The men are declared aliens and in line for deportation.

"Just prove it to your own self, then—that a man who has the good taste to wear ALFRED BENJAMIN CLOTHES is bound to be well dressed. He knows it—and his associates prove it by copying after him."
